COWBOYS AIM TO BLOW OFF STEAM IN FRISCO

Civilized folks should gather around and enjoy the show

FRISCO, TEXAS (March 15, 2010) — Yee haw, Frisco! The rough and tough antics of the cowboy lifestyle are yours to experience at Frisco Heritage Museum's Shawnee Cowboy Day, April 24. Immerse yourself in this iconic Old West culture and experience clashes between cattlemen and towns folk, which have provided the Western tapestry with colorful stories.

The Heritage Museum invites everyone to come on out and make their own family stories and memories from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. at the Frisco Heritage Center. Take a stagecoach ride just like they did way back when, but watch out for stagecoach bandits. Witness authentic gun fights performed by the Trinity River Desperadoes and experience what it was like to learn in a one-room school house. Cowboy Randy, professional cowboy storyteller, musician and singer, is sure to delight kids and adults alike with his own brand of roving performances throughout the day. While you're having all this interactive cowboy fun, don't forget to take a gander at the Museum's permanent exhibits offering snapshots into Frisco's history.

Event admission is $5 per person and available through the Museum Store the day of the event. Children ages 6 and younger are free. See the museum website for more information: <http://www.friscomuseum.com>
